

CHARLOTTE'S WEB

THEATREWORKSUSA PRODUCTION

The classic story of friendship, based on the book by E.B. White, will warm hearts young and old as it charms its way onto our stage. Down on the Zuckerman Farm, Wilbur, an irresistible young pig is determined to avoid the butcher. With the help of his friends (especially the magnificent spider, Charlotte) Wilbur is not only safe, but learns that true friends live in our hearts forever. This 60-minute musical adaptation of the novel, named one of the best American children's books of the past 200 years, will enchant audiences of all ages.
