PHOENIX FESTIVAL THEATER

Books and lyrics by Gerome Ragni and James Rado. Music by Galt MacDermot. Directed by Richard Mahoney. Presented through special arrangement with Tams-Witmark Music Library, Inc.

The American Tribal Love-Rock Musical! This rock musical tells the story of a group of politically active, long-haired hippies living a bohemian lifestyle in New York City fighting against the Vietnam War. Claude, Berger, Sheila and friends struggle to balance their young lives, loves, and the sexual revolution with their rebellion against the war and their conservative parents and society. Phenomenal musical numbers include Aquarius, Good Morning Starshine, I Believe in Love, Hair, and Let the Sunshine In!
