

Harford Community College Library Celebrates National Library Week

April 8-13, 2019

So big, we couldn't fit it all into one week!

Used Book Sale

Monday, April 8—Monday, April 15

Reduce, reuse, read used books! Book sale proceeds benefit the HCC Library William Schwartzman Memorial Textbook Scholarship.

Planting on the Patio

Monday, April 8, 12-3 p.m.

Library Patio (2nd floor).

Make a recycled planter and plant some seeds for the spring. Co-sponsored by the HCC Environmental Club.

The Art & Science of Recipe Development

Tuesday, April 9, 12:30-1:45 p.m.

Hays-Heighe House

Kerry Dunnington, author of The Seasonal Kitchen: Farm-Fresh Ingredients Enhance 165 Recipes, presents tips for creating fresh, sustainable, healthy meals.

Participants will get to sample a few of the author's recipes.

Sustainable Snacks

Wednesday, April 10, 12-2 p.m.

Library L214

Learn more about healthy eating from the Office of Student Life and the Environmental Club.

FREE veggie snacks!

One Harford, One Book

Thursday, April 11, 6 p.m.

Edgewood E132

Join us for a panel discussion and healthy local food. Local farmers and health care providers will discuss the book Farmacology by Daphne Miller, MD.

More fun events in April—

Make your own magnetic poetry kit with the Office of Student Life. Monday, April 1, 1-2 p.m., SC113.

One Harford, One Book Discuss Farmacology by Daphne Miller with other members of the community. Book discussion led by Colleen Webster. Friday, April 19, 12-1 p.m., Hays-Heighe House 201.

Attend any National Library Week 2019 event and enter to win a gift certificate to Broom's Bloom Dairy.

Our goal is to make all materials and services accessible. If you need disability-related accommodations to participate, please contact HCC Library at 443-412-2316 at least 10 calendar days in advance.
