

The Goophered Grapevine and Other Stories

Dorothy Miller, Ed.D.

Tuesday, April 15, 2014 - 11:45 a.m.-1:00 p.m. Hays-Heighe House, Room 201

> The discussion will focus on short stories by African American author, essayist and political activist Charles Waddell Chesnutt, in which he explores racism and other social themes from the late 19th and early 20th centuries.

This program is presented by The Library of America in partnership with The Gilder Lehrman Institute for History and is supported by a grant from the National Endowment for the Humanities.

The Goophered Grapevine and Other Stories

For our full calendar of events, visit www.harford.edu/haysheighehouse/events.

This event is FREE and open to the public, but seating is limited; registration is required. To register and to purchase a book at a deep discount, contact HaysHeighe@harford.edu or 443-412-2539.

Charles W. Chesnutt

YS-HEIGHE HOUSE

HARFORD COMMUNITY COLLEGE

401 Thomas Run Road, Bel Air, MD 21015 - Park in Lots C, A or L

Faces of Freedom was made possible by a grant from the Maryland Humanities Council through support from the National Endowment for the Humanities. Any views, findings, conclusions or recommendations expressed in the performance, lectures, films and discussions do not necessarily represent those of the National Endowment for the Humanities or the Maryland Humanities Council.